

Name: _____

Score: _____

Weeks: _____ - _____

Journal — Scoring Guidelines — Spanish 201

SCORE	DESCRIPTION
45-50 Superior	Journal contains an appropriate number of entries which represent an honest and consistent effort to write on a daily basis since last collected. The writing is thoughtful, controlled, and accurate. Student is caught up with submission of revised posts to the class's shared document. Student has met with TA relatively recently to discuss a journal entry and receive feedback on writing. Student is clearly making an outstanding effort.
40-44 Good	Journal contains an appropriate number of entries which represent an honest and consistent effort to write on a daily basis since last collected. The writing is thoughtful, controlled, and demonstrates accuracy although numerous errors are present. Student is caught up with submission of revised posts to the class's shared document. Student has met with TA relatively recently to discuss a journal entry and receive feedback on writing. Student is clearly making a notable effort.
33-39 Fair	Journal may not contain an appropriate number of entries that represent an honest and consistent effort to write on a daily basis since last collected. The writing may be lacking in thoughtfulness and control; writing may demonstrate more errors than accuracy. Student may not be caught up with submission of revised posts to the class's shared document. Student may not have met with TA relatively recently to discuss a journal entry and receive feedback on writing. Student is clearly making minimal effort.
0-32 Poor	Journal lacks appropriate number of entries that represent an honest and consistent effort to write on a daily basis since last collected. The writing may be lacking in thoughtfulness and control; writing may demonstrate more errors than accuracy. Student may not be caught up with submission of revised posts to the class's shared document. Student may not have met with TA relatively recently to discuss a journal entry and receive feedback on writing. Student is clearly making insufficient effort.

Comments:
